

I am tired of paying for phone service each month and people using my phone to call and sell products at all hours of the day or night. Repeat calls and messages. That is not the reason I have a phone to be bothered by nuisance calls. It is a disgrace that this should even be discussed. It is a no brainer.